1. Claims 1-5 are allowed over the prior art of record.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The applicant's remarks filed on 08/02/2004 have been carefully reviewed with an update search. Consequently, allowances of claims 1-5 are set forth in according to the applicant's remarks stated on pages 5-18.

The prior art made of record fails to teach or suggest, the method of out-dialing an address having a plurality of digits, comprising: initiate a call by dialing a sequence of digits, recognize the sequence of dialing digits, search the database that include the plurality of digits before dial out, matching all the digits in the data base that require a special handling, and if there is not match the digits in the data base then the search in data base that will include at least portions of a plurality of previously out dial of the recognized dialed digits, as substantially described in independent claims 1-5. These limitations, in combination with other remaining limitations of claims 1-5 are not taught nor suggested by the prior art of record.

3. Applicant's timely filed terminal disclaimer on 08/02/2004 to overcomes the obvious-type double patenting rejection, thus placing the claims into condition for allowance.
